

Federal-State Partner
National Endowment for the Humanities

A. J. Munchak, Robert C. Cordaro, Randy Castellani
Lackawanna County Commissioners

FOLK ART

A MIRROR ON AMERICAN AND AFRICAN LIVES

All programs are free with a Lackawanna County Library Card!

A STITCH IN TIME

Quilts, songs, dances, and skits!

7 p.m., Wednesday, April 27
Scranton Cultural Center

THE IMPACT AND ROLE OF FOLK ART IN EVERYDAY LIFE

With Curator Ed McMullen from the Everhart Museum

7 p.m., Tuesday, May 10, North Pocono Public Library
7 p.m., Thursday, May 19, Dalton Community Library

DESIGNS FOR LIVING: ART IN AFRICAN DAILY LIFE

With Dr. Jane Martin and Dr. Tata Mbugua

2 p.m., Sunday, May 15, Taylor Community Library
7 p.m., Thursday, May 19, Valley Community Library
2 p.m., Saturday, May 21, Carbondale Public Library

AFRICAN WOMEN AS CREATORS: THE POTTER'S ART

With Christa Clarke, Ph.D., from The Newark Museum

7 p.m., Thursday, June 2, Albright Memorial Library

PENNSYLVANIA FRAKTUR: ITS ROLE IN THE COMMUNITY

With Corinne and Russell Earnest, Nationally-Known Fraktur Experts

3 p.m., Saturday, June 4, Abington Community Library
3 p.m., Sunday, June 5, Albright Memorial Library

AFRICAN MASQUERADES

With William Siegmann, Brooklyn Museum of Art

7 p.m., Friday, June 10, Abington Community Library

GUIDED TOUR OF FOLK ART AND AFRICAN ART GALLERIES

With Ed McMullen, Dr. Jane Martin, and Ray Mead

2 p.m., Sunday, June 12, Everhart Museum

FOLK ART

With Susan D. Kleckner of The Antiques Road Show

7 p.m., Thursday, June 30
Scranton Cultural Center