The class will begin with an intermediate-advanced technique warm-up which will focus on preparing the dancer to address core strength, while connecting rhythmically to music and to the movement.

Students will be encouraged to work with a broad range of ideas to develop risk, versatility, and strength in their daily practice and on stage. The class will conclude with phrases from current SFDP repertory that incorporates ideas introduced in the warm-up.

(Bentley Cobb, SFDP accompanist, will be providing live percussion for the class)
