

SUPERBOWL

Superbowl Sunday is one of America's biggest and most dangerous days on the roadways due to impaired driving. Impaired Driving is an issue that impacts each and every person on our roadways. There will also be Roving Patrols and/or Sobriety Checkpoints during Superbowl weekend. This is again, as in the past, to maintain a level of safety for the residents of Lackawanna County.

If you are hosting a Super Bowl party:

- Remember, you can be held liable and prosecuted if someone you served ends up in an impaired-driving crash.
- Make sure all of your guests designate their sober drivers in advance, or help arrange ride-sharing with other sober drivers.
- Serve lots of food and include lots of non-alcoholic beverages at the party.
- Stop serving alcohol at the end of the third quarter of the game and begin serving coffee and dessert.
- Keep the numbers for local cab companies handy, and take the keys away from anyone who is thinking of driving while impaired.

If you are attending a Super Bowl party or watching at a sports bar or restaurant:

- Designate your sober driver before the party begins and leave your car keys at home.
- Avoid drinking too much alcohol too fast. Pace yourself—eat enough food, take breaks, and alternate with non-alcoholic drinks.
- If you don't have a designated driver, ask a sober friend for a ride home; call a cab, friend, or family member to come and get you; or just stay where you are and sleep it off until you are sober.
- Never let a friend get behind the wheel of their vehicle if you think they are about to drive while impaired. Remember, Fans Don't Let Fans Drive Drunk.

Always Buckle Up—it's still your best defense against a drunk driver.
