

Lackawanna
County Convention &
Visitors Bureau

Executive Director

The Executive Director shall be specifically responsible for working with individual tourism businesses and other tourism providers in an advocacy role to develop and successfully implement tourism marketing strategies and promote tourism development within Lackawanna County.

Must have extensive experience in areas such as Tourism, Marketing, Hospitality, Finance and Leadership along with a knowledge or ability to work with representatives of both County and State government. BS Degree in related field preferred.

Send resume and salary requirements to:
careers@visitnepa.org

Job description available for viewing at www.visitnepa.org/careers