5th Annual

Dinner By Design

A Visual Indulgence for the Eyes, Mind and Soul

SPACES AVAILABLE NOW:

The Lackawanna Historical Society is pleased to announce that display spaces for the 2015 Dinner by Design event are now open. In order to ensure a successful event, each designer is asked to select a new space at POSH at the Scranton Club no later than Thanksgiving Day. After that date, remaining spaces will be assigned rather than selected.
