

“Heroes for a Hero”

Earl Granville Benefit Fund

July 11th 2008

On July 11th 2008, we will be hosting a fundraising benefit for SSG Earl Granville a member of the 109th Infantry Battalion located in Honesdale, Pa. Earl was wounded by an IED attack in Afghanistan on June 3rd 2008 and suffered two broken hips and shattered the bones in his legs. His left leg has been amputated at the knee. By making a donation you will contribute to our goal of raising 5,000 dollars to help Earl and his family with expenses that arise while he is continuing his recovery.

Our goal is to raise at least 5,000 dollars during the event. Monetary donations may be mailed to:

Penn Star Bank, PO BOX 192 Elmhurst, Pa. 18416
Please make your check payable in care of Kristen vonAhnen for the Earl Granville Benefit Fund

Donations can also be made online at the website listed at the bottom of the page. We are also asking businesses to help donate for the basket raffles, giveaways and food contributions.

The benefit which starts at 11am will be held at the Black Horse Pub and Grill in Tobyhanna Pa. Directions to the Black horse are listed on the website as well. The band “THREE” will start playing at 8pm. Italian “Heroes” will be for sale during the event for $6.50, preordered heroes will be sold for $5.50. Call in orders to the phone number below. Take outs during the event will be available. A cash bar and food specials will also be available.

The deadline to receive pledges is July 5th 2008. Following the event, we will send out a brief recap of the “Heroes for a Hero” benefit to all of our sponsors. All sponsors will be listed on the website. Earl and his family are aware of this benefit fundraiser and wish to thank everyone for their help and support through this traumatic time in their lives.

Thank you in advance for your support. Please call us if you have any questions or comments about the “Heroes for a Hero” event. We can be reached at phone number (570)-842-1794 or email to:
