May 7 Mother's Day Pottery & Plants Sale Moving Indoors To The Electric City Trolley Museum

The Lackawanna County Arts & Culture Department's Mother's Day Pots and Plants Sale set for Saturday, May 7, from 11 am - 1 pm will move indoors at the Electric City Trolley Museum, 300 Cliff Street, Scranton, on the property of Steamtown Historical Site behind The Marketplace at Steamtown and COLTS Bus Station, due to the anticipated inclement weather.

Sale proceeds will benefit Maternal Family and Health (MFHS).

The project is a partnership with Artworks Gallery and Studio. Prices start at $10. In addition to the sale, there will be free art activities, music, and a sound bowl meditation.

For more information on the event, contact the Department at 570.496.1427 or send an email to arts-culture@lackawannacounty.org.
